ADDRESSING DOMESTIC VIOLENCE IN THE WORKPLACE THROUGH COLLABORATION DIALOGUE SERIES

Westin Nova Scotian | Halifax, Nova Scotia

March 25, 2020

This event is the first of a Regional Dialogue Series that will create space for labour, federally regulated employers, shelters, and marginalized communities to discuss and learn about innovative approaches to addressing domestic violence in the workplace. It is an opportunity to share information about working collaboratively across sectors, geographies and types of organizations to support those affected and to mitigate impacts on workplaces.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Management representatives from federally regulated workplaces
- Union leaders and representatives from federally regulated workplaces
- Shelter workers and domestic violence risk assessment experts
- Leaders and representatives of marginalized communities
