

Women's Multicultural Resource and Counselling Centre of Durham (WMRCC), in partnership with The Regional Municipality of Durham and Trent University Durham, invite you to participate in:

This FREE one-day professional development event features plenary and concurrent sessions on current human rights topics.

Speakers include Chief Commissioner Renu Mandhane and staff from the Ontario Human Rights Commission (OHRC), staff from the Human Rights Legal Support Centre (HRLSC) as well as leaders from Durham Region.

Registration is free: Breakfast, Lunch and refreshments will be provided.

SPACE IS LIMITED, SO REGISTER EARLY!

REGISTER ONLINE by or before April 24, 2017 at:

<https://www.eventbrite.ca/e/take-it-local-human-rights-training-day-durham-region-tickets-32104215573?aff=es2>

Session descriptions are found on the registration web page. Kindly, indicate your preferred morning and afternoon concurrent sessions when you register.

Contact WMRCC if you have any questions:
905-427-7849 / info@wmrccdurham.org

