

What is domestic violence / intimate partner violence?

Domestic violence is sometimes also referred to as intimate partner violence. Domestic violence includes any form of physical, sexual, emotional, financial or psychological abuse. It occurs between other- or same-sex intimate partners, who may or may not be living together. It can happen after a relationship has ended. It also includes acquaintance/date violence.