

Why this is an issue for us at Rio Tinto?

In the in-person training, we will look at how domestic violence impacts safety; mental/emotional health; staff retention and productivity. Through effective leadership and a caring workplace community we can work to support victims of domestic violence and minimize the impacts of the behaviour at work.

Thank you for taking the time to complete the online portion of the training.